God Is the Gospel John Piper 2005-09-08 God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Corinthians 4:6 This book is a cry from the heart of John Piper. He is pleading that God himself, as revealed in Christ's death and resurrection, is the ultimate and greatest gift of the gospel. None of Christ's gospel deeds and none of our gospel blessings are good news except as means of seeing and savoring the glory of Christ. Forgiveness is good news because it opens the way to the enjoyment of God himself. Justification is good news because it wins access to the presence and pleasures of God himself. Eternal life is good news because it becomes the everlasting enjoyment of Christ. All God's gifts are loving only to the degree that they lead us to God himself. That is what God's love is: his commitment to do everything necessary (most painfully the death of his only Son) to enthrall us with what is most deeply and durably satisfying—namely, himself. Saturated with Scripture, centered on the cross, and seriously joyful, this book leads us to satisfaction for the deep hungers of the soul. It touches us at the root of life where practical transformation gets its daily power. It awakens our longing for Christ and opens our eyes to his beauty. Piper writes for the soul-thirsty who have turned away empty and in desperation from the mirage of methodology. He invites us to slow down and drink from a deeper spring. "This is eternal life," Jesus said, "that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent." This is what makes the gospel—and this book—good news.

The Creedal Imperative Carl R. Trueman 2012-09-30 Recent years have seen a number of high profile scholars converting to Roman Catholicism and Eastern Orthodoxy while a trend in the laity expresses an eclectic hunger for tradition. The status and role of confessions stands at the center of the debate within evangelicalism today as many resonate with the call to return to Christianity's ancient roots. Carl Trueman offers an analysis of why creeds and confessions are necessary, how they have developed over time, and how they can function in the church of today and tomorrow. He writes primarily for evangelicals who are not particularly confessional in their thinking yet who belong to confessional churches—Baptists, independents, etc.—so that they will see more clearly the usefulness of the church's tradition.

The Crisis 1944-08 The Crisis, founded by W.E.B. Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP, is a journal of civil rights, history, politics, and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color. For nearly 100 years, The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders, decision makers, peacemakers and justice seekers. It has chronicled, informed, educated, entertained and, in many instances, set the economic, political and social agenda for our nation and its multi-ethnic citizens.

Hope to Hear Soon Janice Woodrum 2018-09-18 Jesus said, I have come that they may have life, and have it more abundantly. John 10:10b The abundant life that He desires for us thankfully includes an awareness of His presence, and the opportunity to communicate with Him freely. But in our walk with Christ, we sometimes experience interruptions in that precious sense of unbroken fellowship with Him. He seems far away and we have trouble hearing His voice clearly. We are unsure what we can do to restore that communion. The acrostic of this poem spells out some of the basic points of this book that we can ponder prayerfully in evaluating our communication and communion with God. H Have I been HONEST with you, Lord, bringing my hearts truth? O Am I OBEDIENT to what you tell me to do? P Am I PERSUADED you're always near? E Am I always EXPECTING from you to hear? T Am I TRUSTING in your faithfulness too? O Do I OFFER all I can, thanking you again and again? H Do I HUNGER for your presence and thirst for your Word? E Do I have EMPATHY for others? Do I ENJOY your Spirit in them? Am I ENCOURAGING to others whenever I can? A Could I ABANDON myself more fully? Am I surrendered to you? R Do I rest in your SOVEREIGNTY too? S Would I SEEK you in the midst of a storm? O Or am I OBSTINATE and so stubborn? O Am I OVERCONFIDENT to a fault? N NEEDING you, because I don't want to be without? Hope to Hear Soon; I Hope to Hear Soon I Will Always Look to Hear What I Can Hear From You.

Open and Relational Theology Thomas Jay Oord 2021-07-01 Most theologies suck. They're too technical or they describe a God nobody understands. Sometimes the God portrayed sounds like a controlling boyfriend or absentee parent. Rather than woo or persuade, most theology books clobber readers into submission. This book is different. Thomas Jay Oord presents a theology that makes sense. It fits the way we live our lives and matches our deepest intuitions. To the surprise of some, it harmonizes with sacred scripture... at least the good parts. And it promotes a genuinely loving God. Open and relational theology is controversial. Oord and others have lost their jobs because they embrace it. Others have been booted from religious communities or shunned by families and friends. It's that radical! Using understandable language and illustrations from everyday life, Oord explains the core ideas of open and relational theology. He reveals why this way of thinking is life-changing - for good - for so many. This theology doesn't suck. People around the world are turning to open and relational theology. It answers our biggest questions about good and evil, purpose and freedom, love and science. Get a Copy of Open and Relational Theology What they're saying... Christianity Diarmaid MacCulloch 2010-03-18 The New York Times bestseller and definitive history of Christianity for our time—from the award-winning author of The Reformation and Silence A product of electrifying scholarship conveyed with commanding skill, Diarmaid MacCulloch's Christianity goes back to the origins of the Hebrew Bible and encompasses the globe. It captures the major turning points in Catholic, Protestant, and Orthodox history and fills in often neglected accounts of conversion and confrontation in Africa, Latin America, and Asia. MacCulloch introduces us to monks and crusaders, heretics and reformers, popes and abolitionists, and discover Christianity's essential role in shaping human history and the intimate lives of men and women. And he uncovers the roots of the faith that galvanized America, charting the surprising beliefs of the founding fathers, the rise of the Evangelical movement and of Pentecostalism, and the recent crises within the Catholic Church. Bursting with original insights and a great pleasure to read, this monumental religious history will not soon be surpassed.

Deeper Still Janice Woodrum 2018-04-17 In the almost unimaginably horrendous atmosphere and circumstances within the Nazi prison camps of Germany during WWII, Betsie ten Boom was known to comfort her sister, Corrie with the brief statement, there is no pit so deep that He is not deeper still. The cover of this book attempts to depict Jesus within that deep, dark place, shining forth with the glorious light of His presence and welcoming us unto Himself. Similarly, the chapters of this book are crafted to help us visualize the presence of Jesus, and to experience more clearly His comfort, encouragement and strength within the deep and dark places of our own lives. He not only meets us there; He is the pathway to bring us out of these dim places, and into the light of His fellowship with healing and renewed hope. Through a trail of vivid personal experiences, and the truth of the scriptures, I invite you to come along and find Him in that place where we all need Him most.
