Moving out from the Pew: Equipping the Saints for the Work of Ministry Rev. Dr. Connie Welch 2017-01-03 This is a transformational training course designed to give church leaders of all educational levels the basic biblical interpretation, homiletical, public speaking, and leadership skills necessary to fulfill their role as lay leaders. It provides all of the resources necessary to facilitate class discussions in each of the four learning modules, including recommendations for suggested textbooks, power point presentations, and other class room materials to be distributed to the students as study guides. A church can only go as far as its leaders. When the leadership as a whole grows spiritually, the church also grows spiritually. We grow in the Lord as we learn how to accurately handle the word of truth (2 Timothy 2:15; NASB). Focused bible study, enhanced with the proper biblical interpretation skills, provides a much deeper and more thorough understanding of Gods word and thus strengthens our relationship with Him. It also provides the foundation for our theological development and biblical worldview.

Most Treasured of All Gayle L. Teague 2015-09-23 I intend to leave this book my to children and grandchildren. I hope it is received in the same spirit that I give it. I love every one of them with all my heart. They are all precious individuals, and I am very proud of each one. May God bless them. Times have changed. I miss the 1940's when things were simple. Today kids are smarter than we were. They are on strange electronic games that I do not understand. I suspect they are addictive and perhaps even harmful, depending on content. The temptations today are many times more problematic than when I grew up. These young people are high-tech, intelligent, and far ahead of me at their age. They are all very smart and are, or will be, well educated. They show signs of becoming very successful in this world. However, my concerns are related to the spiritual side of life and reality. What about life hereafter? Have I prepared them for the next life? I fear I have failed in that regard and I write in order to leave them something about God's word that may take up the slack in things where I have failed. I want to be sure that my kids and grandkids become believing, studious Christians as adults. If there is an afterlife, and I believe there is, it must be of great importance for all so, get ready, I believe we will all have an afterlife. We, in America, are fortunate in that we have freedom of religion and there are churches on every corner teaching the basic principles of our Lord and Savior. My Dad raised me on the bible and denominational doctrine because that's what he knew. He gave me a good start but I have discovered that there is much more to learn than denominational tradition. I believe an open mind is absolutely necessary and denominational training is a closed down system loyal to only one view. I want my children to study God's word. Unfortunately, many churches and church people do not study, but accept a particular traditional doctrine that has been handed down to them. I am now in my late seventies. I am not an academic and hold no degrees in theology. One might say I have a degree in hard knocks, experience, big mistakes, and corrections. I hope that my years of study and faith are enough. After years of doubting, study, research, and prayer I have come to believe that the bible is the most valuable word of wisdom on earth, The Most Treasured of All books on the planet. Very intelligent men and women have tried to disprove the bible but the more they attack, the better the old book looks. It is still the world's best seller. I believe we can base our whole life in this world and the life hereafter on the bible. I intend to convince my children and grandchildren of that, and I pray they read what I have left them.

The Legacy of Biblical Womanhood Susan Hunt 2003-03-06 Many Christian women are floundering-they are confused about what it means to be a Christian woman. Churches aren't sounding a clear call to biblical womanhood, much less teaching what it is. On top of that, precious few resources exist to help disciple women in the biblical image of womanhood. In this book Susan Hunt and Barbara Thompson call women to pass on a legacy of biblical womanhood to the next generation. Part One gives a defense of biblical womanhood, urging women to follow God's design. Part Two applies the principles of biblical womanhood to the stages of a woman's life. This includes a chapter about what it means to have a pilgrim's perspective through the final season of life on earth. Part Three appeals to churches to equip women to live out and to leave the legacy of biblical womanhood and includes practical guidance for ministering to women. When combined with Crossway's Spiritual Mothering, By Design, and The True Woman, this book will breathe new life into women's ministries in the church.

Becoming a Church that Cares Well for the Abused Brad Hambrick 2019-06-04 Is your church prepared to care for individuals who have experienced various forms of abuse? As we become more aware of individuals experiencing sexual abuse, domestic violence, and other forms of abuse, it's clear that resources are needed to help ministries and leaders care for these individuals with love, support, and in cooperation with civil authorities. This handbook seeks to help the church take a significant step forward in its care for those who have been abused. Working in tandem with the Church Cares resources and videos, this handbook brings together leading evangelical trauma counselors, victim advocates, social workers, attorneys, batterer interventionists, and survivors to equip pastors and ministry leaders for the appropriate initial responses to a variety of abuse scenarios in churches, schools, or ministries. Though the most comprehensive training is experienced by using this handbook and the videos together, readers who may be unable to access the videos can use this handbook as a stand-alone resource.

Spiritual Warfare Setting Captives Free Heather Bixler 2012-03-08 So many of us desire freedom - the freedom that is promised to us when we decide to follow Jesus. The freedom from the burden of our sin, the need to be "good enough," anger, jealousy, and envy. Even though we are believers we would be ashamed to say that we don't always experience peace, contentment, and joy in our life. We are looking for the grace that God has so graciously given to us to be real in our life... Breaking Pride is an eBook based on one simple truth: In order to walk in God's grace we need to tear down the the walls of pride. A lot of believers, even though saved by God's grace, are still walking in pride rather than walking in His grace. Knowing what pride is and learning to identify pride in your life is the first step to overcoming a life filled with pride. Pride is rooted in fear and leads to anger, jealousy, and envy. Sin isn't keeping us from having a relationship with the Lord, it's our pride. So many of us long to have an authentic and REAL relationship with the Lord, and we long to have the fruit of the spirit filled in our heart. Our desire is to achieve these fruits through will power. But we do not even realize that the pride that lives within our heart is what is blocking the fruit of the spirit from living within us. In Breaking Pride you will learn to identify different areas of pride in your life. Filled with encouragement, Breaking Pride will take you through a practical reading of what pride may look like in your life... Let's stop building walls of pride and start building the foundation of grace within our lives...

B.y. Stuart, Ph.d 2010-04-18 One of the situations that the Christian counselor may face in his ministry is spiritual warfare. At the initial encounter, the symptoms may not appear to be a satanic situation. The only way you the counselor might be able to distinguish signs from any other condition, is through the Holy Spirit. Spiritual warfare has become an increasingly interesting topic for both secular researchers and religious believers alike. For this reason, the understanding of satanic activities should be one of the major subject matter the individual who is interested in being a Christian Counselor should research. He should investigate, analyze and gain knowledge in preparation for the unlikely event he encounters this situation.

These women face tremendous obstacles as they seek to lead the twenty-first century church. Going beyond analysis and exploration, it answers the question of how to develop a training and mentorship program specifically designed to prepare African-American women for excellence in leadership. A survey of fifty church staff and members of various Black Baptist churches was conducted to determine the perspective and experiences of women in leadership. Interviews with three women serving as pastors within the Black Baptist church facilitated in the gathering of key data. This information was used to format a training and mentoring manual that effectively prepare African American women for leadership in the Black Baptist church.

The Most Expensive Box of Chocolate in the World Vernon Sessoms, Jr. 2020-04-15 This training manual is written for African American (Hebrew) woman who have a burning desire to break generational the curses on the African American family. Because of the generational impact of slavery inflicted on us through Transatlantic Slave Trade devastating the African American family. The goal of this book is to write a training manual using the book of Proverbs as a template of instruction showing notable examples of Hebrew women who developed the persistent determination to enter into the throne room of God's heart. The purpose of this book is to use it as a Christian discipleship manual enabling African American (Hebrew) Christian women to rebuild a loving, healthy relationship with the African American (Hebrew) men. I chose the book of Proverbs chapter 31 (10-31) dealing with the virtuous women. This training manual is consistent with the core values of my ministry Every Man Pastors His Own House. Every (Hebrew) Christian woman reading this book is called by Yahweh and his son Jesus Christ to rebuild the fragmented relationship between Christian Hebrew men and women through Christian discipleship. This training manual will give her practical ways to accomplish this enormous task of rebuilding the fragmented relationship between Christian Hebrew men and women. I see the re-gathering the House of Judah and the House of Israel. This re-gathering will involve the rebuilding of the fragmented relationship between the Christian Hebrew men and women while strengthening the world-wide body of Jesus Christ. This training manual can be used by any Christian (Hebrew) women who desire to be a disciple of Jesus Christ. No Christian Hebrew woman will be able to enter into the throne room of God's heart until she becomes a disciple of Jesus Christ.
